

Current.
Balance. $1,100

UPcoming
Bills:

Rent due on 1st - $600

Phone due on 14th - $40

Income

Foot Locker - $500

Doordash - $300

Add a source of Income

Expenses

Groceries - $150

Gas - $50

Add expenses

A hand-drawn budget sheet on a piece of lined paper. The title "November Budget" is underlined in green. A small green box with a hamburger menu icon and the word "Menu" is in the top right corner. The budget items are listed in green ink: Total Income - $1,500, Rent - $600, Savings - $100, Food - $50, Groceries - $150, Gas - $60, and Fun money - $100.

Menu

November Budget

Total Income - $1,500

Rent - $600

Savings - $100

Food - $50

Groceries - $150

Gas - $60

Fun money - $100

A hand-drawn sketch of a notepad with a header section and a table. The header section has a tab labeled 'Reminders' and a small icon of a notepad with the word 'menu' written on it. Below the header is a table with three columns: 'Bill', 'due', and 'Amount'. The table contains three rows of data: 'Rent' due '1st' for '$600', 'Phone' due '14th' for '$40', and 'Car' due '8th' for '$200'.

Bill	due	Amount
Rent	1st	$600
Phone	14th	$40
Car	8th	$200

Savings Goals

Emergency
Current: $500 (50%)
Goal: $1,000

Laptop
Current: $300
Goal: $800 (37.5%)

Financial Tips/
Resources

Analytics

Menu

Your Spending Chart
for November:

Category	Approximate Percentage
Food	35%
Housing	25%
Debt	15%
Transportation	10%
Shopping	15%